

Easter Riddles

HOW MANY RIDDLES DO YOU CRACK?

1. The small, round house has no door and no gate. If its occupant has to get out, it has to pierce the wall. Who is the occupant?

2. First small, then large, illuminates the night in which Jesus awakens. It is beautiful to behold, yet will soon pass away

3. If 7 children squeeze under an umbrella, how do none of them get wet?

4. An Easter bunny has two daughters. Each of her daughters has a brother. How many children does the Easter bunny have?

5. How do you know that bees are happy when they work?

6. What can make the weather change abruptly?

7. Who hits hooks and never hangs clothes on them?

8. It is a small, white catkin that never purrs, it also has no paws.

9. Why is the rabbit the luckiest animal?

10. How many Easter eggs can you put in an empty basket?

11. Why is the letter A like a flower?

12. How does Easter end?

13. I don't grow on the beach, but in the middle of the forest. I don't have nuts on me, but berries. If you want to break me, I will sting you. Who am I?

14. I wear candles in spring and green hedgehogs in autumn. Who am I?

15. What is the American Easter Bunny's favourite capital city?

16. Which kind of bunny cannot hop?

17. How many eggs go into a nest?

18. There is only one place where Halloween comes before Easter. Which one is that?

19. How do you know for sure that carrots are good for the eyes?

20. What important Easter accessory do you have to break in order to use it?

21. Which bird calls its own name in spring?

22. What is the Easter Bunny's favourite music to listen to?

23. On Calvary there were three of them, not six. Another word for them is crucifix.

24. How do birds communicate?

25. What kind of bow can't be tied?

